Description

The Lærdalsøren Hotel dates back to 1880, and is a Swiss-style building with detailed decorations.

The building was a hotel and guesthouse until 1979. Now it has become a small wooden hotel again.

We are situated in the heart of old Lærdalsøyri.

The hotel have 5 double rooms (4 more opening in 2019). Three rooms are with double bed and two are with separated beds. One room is a suite with a four poster bed. One room has a balcony overlooking the well-known Øyragata.

There is a toilet and shower in the hallway.
